Twenty Handsome Prizes

Last Christmas we gave away a thirty-five dollar Navajo blanket for a prize, and were criticized somewhat severely for not dividing our appropriation so that more than one person would be benefited. To please the public, therefore, we have set aside for this year's prizes twenty different articles, amounting in value to $50.00, which are on display in our show window.

A numbered ticket will be exchanged for each and every cash coupon (see below) applied on purchases; but NO PRIZE TICKETS WILL BE ISSUED ON SALES UNLESS CASH COUPONS ARE PRESENTED. There will be one prize for each day from December 2nd to December 24th inclusive. The stubs corresponding to the numbered tickets will be deposited in separate boxes, one box for each day. On Thursday, December 24th, at twelve o'clock noon, will occur the grand drawing for prizes, which will then be delivered to the lucky winners on the spot. Our employees will not be permitted to participate in this distribution.

If your bill comes to two dollars be sure you have two coupons, and if you wish to spend ten dollars, bring ten coupons and save accordingly. At The Big Indian Store

Corner Railroad Ave. and First St.

It has been a very busy week socially, in a way. There have been numerous small affairs like neighborhood gatherings and dinner parties and dances, but very few house parties at which any considerable number of people were present.

Mrs. M. R. Otero visited friends in Santa Fe over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. H. V. Moore gave a dinner on Monday in honor of Father Tom Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hesselien entertained a party of friends at dinner Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Cook entertained General and Mrs. A. P. Turkington of Santa Fe during the day.

Mrs. D. H. Carns entertained two days during the week for Miss Virginia Goodman, of Virginia, who is her guest.

Mrs. B. S. Rodes, of West Copper avenue, returned home during the week from a prolonged visit to friends in Denver.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Cutter and Mr. and Mrs. Coffin were the guests of Mrs. Ellsworth Ingalls at a small dinner party at the Alvarado.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hesselien, of 1211 West Roma avenue, entertained a small party of friends at dinner on Thanksgiving.

Charles Spauld entertained a few friends at the Alvarado in honor of his sister, Miss Spauld and friend, Miss Hammond, both of New York.

Mrs. J. E. Gatchell, of West Central avenue, is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, who arrived during the week from Ontario, and expect to remain during the winter.

Quite a number of Albuquerque people have gone to Santa Fe to attend Governor Curry's reception given tonight in honor of General Hoyt of Washington, D. C., who is stopping in the capital temporarily.

Party—Mrs. Cecil Reynolds entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at her home, 503 South Third street in honor of her brother, Eugene, who was visiting her from Raton. N. M. Cards and music were the pastime of the evening and were followed by a dainty spread. Mr. Eugene Reynolds left for Raton Friday night on No. 8.

Mrs. R. A. Frost's reception on Saturday afternoon was probably the most notable event outside of the Charity Ball on Thanksgiving evening. The Commercial club ball Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair, the committee on entertainment making an unusual effort as in arrangements. There were numerous dinner parties on Thanksgiving, and a large number of visitors from out of the city were among the guests.

The annual reception of the Masons to their wives and lady friends at the Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening was one of the most delightful social events of the week. The guests numbered more than 150. They were entertained by a splendid spread and a well selected program of musical and literary numbers.

Varsity Dance—The boys of the university entertained the girls of the university and a few friends on Wednesday evening with a dance given in the Elks' ball room. It was the most successful dance of the 'varsity' social season. The attendance was much larger than usual. Lawrence Sterling and Jesse Keleher had charge of the arrangements.

Governor's Reception—One of the chief social events of the season in the Capital city will be a reception by Governor Curry which takes place this evening at his residence. The governor has issued invitations to a large circle of friends and officials all over the territory. It is said two dozen invitations or more were received by friends of the governor in this city. The reception is in honor of Henry M. Hoyt, the solicitor general who returned with the governor from Washington last week.

The marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Powers, recently of Toledo, Ohio, and Mr. M. A. Skees took place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Monday afternoon, in the presence of a small number of admiring friends. Miss Mary Maher and Will Keleher stood up with the bride and groom. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, which was performed by Father Mandalar. Mr. and Mrs. Skees are at home to their friends at 721 South Arno street.

Charity Ball—The ladies of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent association have $635 in their treasury as a result of the Charity Ball given by them on Thanksgiving evening at the Elks' opera house. More than half the tickets purchased were not presented at the door but the affair was as successful socially as it was financially. Probably a hundred couples were present and danced for sweet charity's sake, using the words of Robert Burns, the Scottish bard, the cause "gave youth a meal to their heels." The night was waning when the last of the dancers departed for their several homes. It was the most successful charity ball ever given in the city.

"PECKS BAD BOY"
THE BILL TONIGHT

Before George W. Peck was elected governor of Wisconsin his highest ambition seemed to be to make other folks happy, which he so largely succeeded in doing, and never more successfully than when Fame's trumpet blew its cheeriest note in announcing the advent in print of his "Bad Boy," upon which the farce-comedy of "Peck's Bad Boy," which comes to the Elks' opera house tonight, is founded by exclusive permission of his author father. There have been a few, and ever will be thousands of just such bad boys as the governor depicts, but there pen portraits were never drawn until he epitomized them in his humorous creation, the quintessence of which has been transferred to the play referred to, and has amused the public to the limit of hysterical hilarity for two past twenty years, during which time it has seen many puerile imitations pass into the limbo of forgotten fakes. This season the scope of the play has been broadened so as to admit of the introduction of more of the Bad Boy's most telling and ludicrous practical jokes and escapades, as well as of special feature novelties bearing the stamp of genuine metropolitan attractions.

A tickling cough, from any cause is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by all dealers.

A Good Lintment. When you need a good reliable lintment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all druggists.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.
